

Gardening for Market

Intro to Profitable Market Gardening

- ▶ Earn part of your income by growing and selling fresh produce.
- ▶ Learn sustainable methods of gardening and use of materials in small to medium scale horticulture for profit.
- ▶ Choose equipment systems that best fit your scale of production and the business side of production and marketing.
- ▶ Learn to prepare harvested crops for retail sale and to how navigate through regulations and requirements.

Where: Mat-Su College, Palmer, Non-credit, non-graded, $95 fee

When: Monday-Weds, 6PM-9PM May 24 & 26; June 2, 7, 9, 2010

Instructors: Ellen Vande Visse, and Dr. Jeffrey Smeenk

Note: This class includes a hands-on lab component. Students should be prepared to spend time working in a garden for a portion of class time.

Required Text: Backyard Market Gardening by Andrew Lee $20

---To register for classes go to www.matsu.alaska.edu. Need help? ---
Call 745-9746 or stop by Mat-Su College at Mile 2, Trunk Rd, Palmer, AK.

Details: CED A049 Market Gardening: Grow & Sell .0 CR Dates 5/24-06/09

Grade Mode: Non-Graded MSC Non-Credit Fee: $95.00

CRN 52376 Sec PE5 M &W 06:00P-09:00P Room FSM 10 Instr: Vande Visse